

Esther Camp MINISTRIES

Sandra Posey, Co-Pastor of Zoe Christian Fellowship City Church, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on February 2nd. Her life's experience of growing up in a single-family home with two brothers and four sisters and being the single head of household taught her how to survive and overcome life's challenges. Sandra says, "I've learned that you don't have to be a victim of your circumstances but you can make a decision to reach your highest potential." Today, she lives in the Metro Atlanta area with the love of her life of 29 years, her darling and faithful husband John. To this union, three daughters, Rhea, Tasha and Alexis were born, and this family has grown through marriage, with the addition of a son, Deonte, and their very first granddaughter, Zoe Alexandria.

In 1978 Sandra received Jesus Christ into her life. She attended Rhema Bible School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. "This opened my eyes of understanding and I knew that God's divine plan for my life would be to preach the gospel of the kingdom of God and use my gifting and calling to ensure that Christ is formed in those I'm called to reach." Sandra is a preacher of the Gospel, a prayer warrior, a defender of women, and gifted in teaching the Word of God on healing and many other subjects. She is currently pursuing the call of God on her life daily through encouraging other Pastor's wives, ministering to church leadership and working on her very first book. You can find Sandra daily on Facebook and twitter.com (womandefender), communing with friends and sowing seeds of encouragement.
